

WHAT'S NEW

WITH DETERMINE[®]
A corcentric COMPANY

In April of 2019, Determine was acquired by Corcentric.

Who is corcentric?

Corcentric is a solution provider and consultancy that helps organizations optimize the ways they purchase, pay, and get paid. Thanks to several recent acquisitions, they support the sourcing and purchasing processes from end-to-end.

Most importantly, Corcentric shares the commitment to innovation and customer service that have always defined Determine.

Where Does Determine Fit In?

The Determine platform plays an essential role in Corcentric's holistic service offering.

A suite of source-to-pay solutions on a unified cloud platform.

A comprehensive portfolio of technology and services for spend management upstream and downstream.

What Does This Mean For You?

You'll still enjoy access to our platform - including new features and enhancements brought to you by the expanded capabilities and subject matter expertise of the Corcentric family. Better still, you'll now have the opportunity to access Corcentric's full service offering.

Contact your Customer Success Manager to learn more about what our expanded capabilities could mean for your organization.
